WORDS FOR EDIFICATION.

FACETIOUS.

"I tell you, gentlemen, that dog o' mine is an intelligent critter." "Possibly," muttered Fogg; "but you wouldn't think it, judging from the company he keeps."—Boston Transcript.

Toilet art criticism: First lady—"Dear me, I never saw Mrs. Potts look so pale." Second lady—"Nor I; she's probably been out in the rain without an umbrella."—Brooklyn Eagle.

A physician says man is liable to have 2,400 different diseases. And yet some patent medicines are warranted to cure about 4,000 diseases. There's a mistake somewhere.—Norristown Herald.

Several of our exchanges are devoting considerable space to the importance of "cooking girls." It's no use. We don't want them cooked. The raw damsel is good enough for us.—Hartford Times.

The want of the present is an iron window shutter that will open itself for firemen and have sense enough to stay shut when burglars are about. Such a thing has not been discovered yet.—New Orleans Picayune.

Extract from a commencement address: "Classmates, adieu. To-day we part for years; it may be forever (tears) But, the sacred ties of friendship, wedded by the fadeless—" (storms of convulsive sobs).—Burlington Hawkeye.

Another man has been killed by tobacco in New York. A hogshead of it rolled over him.—Boston Commercial Bulletin. He should not have taken an over-dose.—Boston Folio. And then he would not now be taking an under snooze.—Toledo American.

Clergyman (who suddenly discovers that he has given a hackman the counterfeit half dollar he was anxious to destroy)—"Hi, hackman, I've made a mistake!" Hackman (who has palmed off a bad quarter in change and is hurriedly driving off)—"Oh, sir, you'll find it quite correct!"—N. Y. Post.

"Anybody called this morning?" asked the editor of a country paper of his assistant, whom he met on the stairs. "Yes, our subscribers are upstairs." "What! all of 'em!" "Yes, they're all there." "What did you do, then? We've only got two chairs." "Oh, I borrowed one next door."—Cincinnati Saturday Night.

The rapidity with which a Texas darkey can hide away a watermelon is wonderful, and the number of watermelons he is able to absorb on the shortest notice baffles the numeral system. Not long since, when watermelons were fashionable, an Austin gentleman bet a friend that a hired colored boy could eat a forty-pound watermelon in four minutes. The boy was called and told the nature of the bet. He asked permission to retire, which was granted. On his return he announced his readiness to accomplish the eclipse of the melon in the given time. "Why did you go away?" "I went away, boss, jess to try ef I could make de trip. I'se been practicin' on two thirty-pound melons, and I kin put de forty-pound melon out'n sight wid a minute to spare," and he did it, but he was disappointed at not getting a steady contract for it all day.—Texas Siftings.

"A DROP OF JOY IN EVERY WORD."

DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.: Three months ago I was broken out with large ulcers and sores on my body, limbs and face. I procured your "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Purgative Pellets" and have taken six bottles, and to-day I am in good health, all those ugly ulcers having healed and left my skin in a natural, healthy condition. I thought at one time that I could not be cured. Although I can but poorly express my gratitude to you, yet there is a drop of joy in every word I write.

Yours truly, JAMES O. BELLIS,
Flemington, N. J.

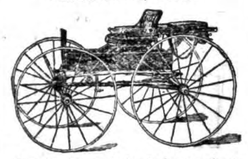
T. T. HAYDOCK,
WHOLESALE
Carriage Manufacturer,
Cor. Plum and 12th Sts.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO.



This firm is now in its sixth year of existence, and the rapid and permanent growth it has made is something unprecedented in the history of carriage building. Its permanancy and growth have been accomplished, not by any special effort at "drumming" the trade, but by the excellency of the work produced, and by the low price at which this work has been sold. Another great feature of its success is in the STYLE of the work produced. It is too often the case that in low priced work the style is correspondingly low or common in appearance. But all goods manufactured by T. T. Haydock, are made in a stylish and artistic manner, thus adding beauty to quality. This firm does not build the lowest grade, nor the lowest priced work in the market by any means, but is making a specialty of a medium grade full leather top buggy at a very low price for the quality; and is offering special inducements to the trade to buy in large quantities.
